

Dear Los Angeles County teachers,

Are you interested in incorporating more Service Learning into your classroom or school? Jane Goodall's Roots & Shoots is excited to announce that we are moving into our third year of our Diversity Initiative program and are currently looking for 10 new title one classrooms/ clubs to work with in 2010-2011. Participants from last years program started school gardens, cleaned rivers, started recycling programs, wrote healthy cookbooks, adopted animal shelters and much more.

We provide teachers with:

- Service learning professional development
- A complimentary membership to Roots & Shoots
- In class presentations and student trainings
- Service Learning Curriculum
- Opportunities to attend events
- Priceless online community and project resources

Teachers agree to:

- Attend a one-day Roots & Shoots teacher summit on August 7th at the Skirball Cultural Center
- Start a Roots & Shoots group with their classroom or lunch time/ afterschool club
- Schedule for a member of Roots & Shoots to present to their students
- Complete one Service Learning campaign throughout the school year
- Report the project (a student can help you) in our online project database
- Participate in the annual Roots & Shoots Day of Peace at the Santa Monica Pier

To learn more or apply to be a part of this program, email eviera@janegoodall.org. Don't wait too long! There are only 10 spots available to receive this special grant programming.

Visit us at www.rootsandshoots.org and check out our California Regional webpage at http://www.rootsandshoots.org/regional_offices/california/home

LOS ANGELES
The Jane Goodall Research Center
University of Southern California
3601 Watt Way- GFS 120
Los Angeles, CA 90089
213.471.2516 main

BERKELEY
Roots & Shoots California
1581 Le Roy Ave.
Berkeley, CA 94704
510.644.8236 main
510.644.1115 fax

rootsnshoots@janegoodall.org www.rootsandshoots.org